

Famorca Quiz September 2006 – Film Round

This round is film titles expressed in a different way. Either the meaning will be the same, e.g. Short meeting would be 'Brief Encounter'; or it may be another way of expressing what the name of the film sounds like, i.e. How a cannibal may feel after a meal of female missionary = "glad he ate her!", small child's horse would be Gigi

All yours!

A child of Independence day	Born on 4 th July
A little water added to glass of whisky.	Splash
Cracker of an ocean!	Sea Biscuit
Boulder strewn	Rocky
Captain Morgan, or Bluebeard perhaps.	Pirates of the Caribbean
Maybe the Jets, Sharks or Gophers?	A shot n the dark
Straight bourbon after lights out	Moulin Rouge
Lancelot sees Figaro maybe	A night at the Opera
A boatload of women	Chicago
Month for chocolate bars	March of the Penguins
Sunday 24 th September	The day after tomorrow
Cockney bumps into his lawyer	Brief Encounter
Pick up Mum & Dad	Meet the Parents
Small sheep don't bleat	Silence of the lambs
Daily women	Calendar Girls
Lupine Tango, waltz, rumba – anything except the Foxtrot?	Dances with wolves
John Wayne – but not at High Noon!	Midnight Cowboy
Mallard consommé for starters	Duck Soup
Cross-section opinion of chilli con carne	Some Like it Hot.
Very expensive infant	Million dollar baby
Unclean XII	Dirty Dozen
Expensive digit	Goldfinger
A Rainforest Novel	Jungle Book
Very private in Los Angeles	LA Confidential
Hounds in the water supply	Reservoir Dogs
H2O + Titanic + duck feathers	Watership Down
IX – II – V	Nine to Five
Playing the violin near the chimney pot	Fiddler on the roof
Blazing Roman vehicles	Chariots of fire
Blown away	Gone with the wind
High temperature at the weekend	Saturday night fever